

朝日夕日に輝く
日本・カナダ青少年
絆親愛のシンボル

pagetwo

NEWSWEEK (Nov. 1992) Vol. 100
ISSUE 47 (4th) p. 11-12 (4)
http://www.newsweek.com/app/47page2

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS Living martial arts club from Japan starts 50-year-old tree in Canada's park

Martial arts friendship takes root in park

By [Name] in [Location]

For a park in the heart of the city, the 50-year-old tree is a symbol of friendship between Japan and Canada. It was planted by a group of martial arts enthusiasts from Japan, who have been visiting the park for years. The tree is a testament to the long-standing relationship between the two countries, and it is a source of pride for the local community.

The tree is a symbol of friendship between Japan and Canada. It was planted by a group of martial arts enthusiasts from Japan, who have been visiting the park for years. The tree is a testament to the long-standing relationship between the two countries, and it is a source of pride for the local community.

More importantly, it promotes peace and mutual understanding of our different countries.

The tree is a symbol of friendship between Japan and Canada. It was planted by a group of martial arts enthusiasts from Japan, who have been visiting the park for years. The tree is a testament to the long-standing relationship between the two countries, and it is a source of pride for the local community.

日本・カナダ友好植樹式を讚える新聞記事